

I detest telemarketers. They disturb me late at night, waking my son. They do not follow rules and regulations that I KNOW they are required to follow. I hate recordings and live people calling me. If I want something I'll go look for it. My phone is for my use, not someplace where I can be marketed to!